IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN COURT OF THE WILD ROSE PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD

Theydies and Gentlethems,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I welcome you to Coronation 47 – from the way of the BROAD to RIVER CITY. I have been honoured to serve as President again this year. Being a member of the Executive Board is not easy; however, I am continuously grateful for the opportunity to serve this organization and our community.

I'd be amiss to say that this year was smooth sailing. As with any reign, there were bumps on the road; however, with two community pillars at the helm, our roles on the board often felt redundant. As our organization continues to grow, our volunteer positions are becoming more and more of a full-time commitment. My years as President have shown burnout happens quicker and quicker with each reign. I will forever be grateful for the members that step up to take on these commitments, and events such as Coronation will continue to remind us why we do what we do.

Rob, GoDiva, Ferris, Bambi, Orpheus, and Tequila – You should be proud of your work this year. Coming out of the pandemic restrictions, we knew it would be a process and potentially a struggle to build back our in-person presence. Our community, the world and our organization has seen turmoil the last few years, and each of you navigated your reign with creativity, poise, and grace.

Thank you to our membership for your continued support, encouragement, and love. It's always a delicate balance between progress and respect for tradition, and I believe our ISCWR family is the best representation of both these sides.

I remain in service,
President of the Board
Tosheena Thompson

The John DeSmit Citizen Of The Year Award

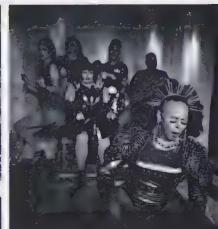

The Citizen of the year award is presented to a person who has contributed freely to making the gay community a better place to live. This contribution, although not necessarily publicly acclaimed, is one that allows each of us to move through life more freely and with more companionship among our neighbours and acquaintances.

John DeSmit was a man at ease with life and who socialized freely with everyone around him. He loved having a good time and demanded nothing from those he encountered. He showed the unaware that gay people are worth caring about. He was himself cared about by many people from all walks of life and his untimely death was a tragic loss to all who knew him.

ANNIVERSARY MONARCH, EMPRESS XLV, CARRIE DU'WAY

Good evening, friends, and family from near and far! Welcome to Coronation 47!

It's hard to believe it has been a year already. It seems like even with an entire year under my wig I struggled to put things into words... And here we are again. This year as dowager was not what I expected, but that isn't a bad thing. I am SO proud of what the ISCSR has done this year.

I want to take this opportunity to congratulate Godiva, Rob, Bambi, Ferris, Tequila, and Orpheus on what can only be described as an incredible year. You set out to conquer this year as the first out of the pandemic and do amazing things and holy shit did you deliver! The new ideas Reign 46 brought in as well as reviving some events we were missing these last years have certainly proved that you came to do the thing and do it well. The last 90 years of the pandemic were long, but you hit the ground running and made an incredible impact.

Team 46, I want you to know that even though you may look back on this year and think about what you didn't get to do or what could have been done better, never let yourselves forget how amazing you are. Celebrate your accomplishments and remember how heavy of an impact you had on this community, this city, and this realm. You are all incredible.

To the Aspirants to the throne, I am so excited to see what you bring to the table this year. I have no doubt that this will be a year full of celebration, hard work and surprises.

All of my Love, I remain, Her Imperial and Sovereign Majesty,
The Pretty In Pink Empress of Attitude, Anyhow and All... That... Ass...
Empress 45

Carrie Du'Way (Pump-Diamonds Mockingbird Do-Point T Steele BDDP Maines Dewitt Loren White)

ANNIVERSARY MONARCH, EMPEROR XLV, TANNER STEELE

Has it really been one year already? Time flies when you consistently overbook yourself.

I thought I would enter reign 46 and take a step back, only fulfill my obligations as dowager monarch, and try and relax after a year of unprecedented fundraising. But I quickly learned that it couldn't happen when you are a busybody and want to ensure you have handed over the reins correctly. It was challenging this year after coming off a reign of sitting in front of a computer and back in full-on in-person fundraising. There were a lot of moments this year where I felt sad for reign 45. We didn't raise as much money as the current reign and didn't get to see people and see the joy we can bring to their faces. But also, there were many moments when I was proud of my team. We are still friends to this day, and I am reminded that we managed to pull off the reign we did during times when many courts went into hiding. Even in this reign, I am proud of myself for holding my place on the board as college rep and as college president. I will always be proud of the work I do for this organization.

Thank you, Rob & Godiva, Ferris & Bambi, and Orpheus & Tequila, for letting me continue working with you this reign. Whether it was putting on the craft beer survivor again or participating in big production shows like SIX or Legs & Dairy, I never felt pushed aside after stepping down as monarch. Congratulations on a fantastic year, because at the end of the day, even if it didn't all go to plan, you are helping TONS of people, the community and local organizations, and that's all that matters.

Good luck, Colin Bae and Vanity Fair. You have big shoes to fill, but remember, we are here to help and support whatever you need. Especially me, because I am a busybody who constantly overbooks himself.

I remain,

His Imperial Sovereign Majesty, The Trantastic Superboy Emperor of Puppies and Pokéballs,
Emperor 45 of Edmonton and All Northern Alberta

Good Evening Ladies and Gentlemen:

I would like to congratulate Emperor Rob and Empress Godiva and your upper house on a very successful year, I am so proud of you. It is hard to believe that 10 years has passed when I had the great honor to reign with truly fabulous people. Emperor Rob , Emperor Jim , Emperor Big Daddy and the fab Empress Marni and Empress Leah. We had a great year and so many memories I will cherish forever.

Your Majesties, Dignitaries, Honored Guests

I cannot believe that another 10 years has gone by since stepping up as Emperor 36 with my other regents Emperor Rob, Emperor Jim, Empress Ivanna Diamonds, Empress Leah Way and Empress Marni Gras. So much has happened and the changes and progression and challenges we have gone through. So much change, but we still stand strong. All of us. I have the most respect for my fellow Monarchs, who continue to support, create awareness, and be there when needed. Family. Chosen family. How much better can life get.

I want to thank everyone for their friendship and support throughout all these years. Love you all.

TEAM REGENT

Ten years ago, six of us gathered together as a team to help guide the court through a regency. We each brought our own unique set of skills, we each gave what we could. We wanted to set up some future monarchs - and our Duke, Prince, and Princess have gone on to take the big crown. We wanted to deliver amazing productions - and we did, thriceover. Ten years later, I remain honored to have reigned with five people whom I so deeply respect and admire.

DOUBLE DECADE MONARCH, EMPEROR XXVI, ROB

We were the wildest party children in Canada, we were the fun that was lost, but not forgotten. We were the 26ers, the WPGGs. We were a Budwesier and a Canadian, two shots of sourpuss please, one with a straw. We brought the thuneer to Calgary, along with our own dais! We served Elephant Love realness, time after time after time.

And we did all this twenty years ago!!! How is that even possible? But here we are, loverbubbles, and twenty years its been!

If you read my main message, you'll get a hint of the amazing double decade reconnections I have enjoyed this last year, all of which served to remind me how important the Court is to me. And part of the reason that the Court is so important is because of Reign 26 and my first wife, the incredible ida Claire.

At Boots, Secrets, and The Roost, in Vancouver, Calgary, and Winnipeg, we represented, served, celebrated. Oh, did we celebrate!

Ida, you will forever hold a special place in my heart, for our year, and for all the years since. I write this assuming Ida will be the one reading it, but also knowing that it's likely her last appearance. Your Court husband is so happy that you've found such happiness with a real husband, and wishes you golden years filled with joy and peace and beers by some lake somewhere. Just know that no matter what, the memory of our time together will always bring a smile to my face and joy to my heart.

xoxo The Tragic Rhinestone, Emperor 26

DOUBLE DECADE MONARCH, EMPRESS XXVI, IDA CLAIRE

Good evening fellow courtiers, ladies, and gentlemen

I would like to thank all those who have graced the stage and supported the hard work of the ISCWR, without all of you there would not be a reason to celebrate.

For personal reasons, I have decided not to perform tonight or be present in drag, but I am here as Darcy to celebrate the great work of the ISCWR and the stepping down of two great Monarchs, Rob and GoDivia.

To my Prince Bobby, Princess Ladonna, IGDs Derek and Krystal Ball, thank you for joining us on this adventure. To my Emperor and friend Rob, thank you for always being regal and supportive, you always made me feel like an Empress. I'm sorry that we could not do one last performance together, but I know you understand.

To my best friend Tootsanelda, thank you for more than 20 years of friendship, fun and a little naughtiness.

To my partner in life Chris, you are my everything. I love you SO much.

QUADRUPLE DECADE MONARCH, EMPRESS VI, LINDEE STAR

QUADRUPLE DECADE MONARCH, EMPEROR VI, DARYL

HER MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN GRACE, GRAND DUCHESS XLVI,

TEQUILA MOCKINGBIRD

It's been nearly a decade since the last time I had the privilege of addressing our community in this way. Who knows, it might be another decade before I get the chance again. Or, as the recent anniversary of the tragic loss of my Drag Daddy, LJ Steele, reminds me, every time might be your last time, so make the words count.

First, I'd like to thank my dear friends, Godiva and Rob, for asking me to be part of Reign 46. The two of you genuinely humble and inspire me with the way you lead our team to achieve such remarkable success. You loved us, believed in our abilities, showed us empathy and kindness or told us the truth even when it wasn't easy to hear. We were individual pieces of an intricate patchwork quilt, and you immediately recognized the unique value and beauty we each brought to the ensemble. We didn't do it perfectly, but nobody ever does. There were steps and missteps, but they ultimately led us to this destination, and I feel so proud to have shared this year with you. To the rest of the upper house, I have been so lucky to have been embraced by you. Thank you for your kind words and kinship, and I hope we can continue building on the friendships we started this year.

After Investiture, I was faced with the choice to either wallow or rise. Fuelled by my dedication to GoDivA, Rob and this organization, I chose the latter. To quell the onslaught of self-doubt that my loss triggered within me, I set out on a mission to prove myself to myself by embracing new experiences and possibilities.

Trying new things can be daunting. The unfamiliar makes us nervous in a way that's hard to describe, but I knew that if I were going to make my mark, I would have to leave my comfort zone, even if that put me in a vulnerable position. Whether it was the Wacky Christmas Lottery, a Pride Baseball Game, or organizing one of the most complicated and exhausting Leg's and Dairy shows we've ever done, I spent a bulk of Reign 46 asking myself:

"Should I be doing this? Can I do this? Is this going to work? Do I look silly?!?"

The answer to these questions was a resounding YES – especially the last one. (You haven't truly seen silly until you watch Tequila Mockingbird try to play baseball in a corset.) But even the bruised ribs were worth it because not only did these events prove to be incredibly fun and wildly successful, but in each of these events, I discovered something new about myself and the people around me. I rejuvenated old connections and cultivated new friendships I may not have entertained in the past.

All too often, we let fear, discomfort or disappointment paralyze us from trying new things. Still, if the pandemic has taught us anything, we must be willing to pivot and evolve to remain relevant and successful. Together, we can experiment with different ideas, breathe new life into old traditions, and usher our now 47-year organization into an innovative and more inclusive future.

This year, I had just a glimpse into what that future might hold, and let me tell you, the future is bright. Bring shades.

HER MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN HIGHNESS, PRINCESS XLVI, BAMBI DEXTROUS

Hello and welcome friends, family, and guests to Coronation 47! Thank you for being with us as we celebrate the end of our year. It has not been easy to travel to other realms, so I especially want to thank our out of town guests for making the journey. It's hard to believe, but the year is now over and I'm proud to have been a part of this record-setting year!

We opened up the gates of the new reign in August 2021, full of ambition and excitement to spearhead events in-person again. Fundraisers were quickly booked before there could be a hint of another lockdown, and by winter, we had multiple events and a major production show under our belts! Our early success was largely due to our Upper House Team that I would now like to address:

Emperor Rob thank you for your leadership and friendship this year. I've enjoyed working closely with you and getting to know you better. You put in the work and I am proud of everything that you have accomplished!

Empress GoDiva I've learned so much from you about rolling with the punches and staying cool under pressure. When things don't go as planned, you shine as bright as ever. Thank you for inviting me to be part of the year!

Duke Orpheus you are well-dressed, handsome and charming, what else is there to say? It's been great watching you grow this year. Keep going and the world will see great things from you!

Duchess Tequila Mockingbird you are a friend, mentor and someone that I look up to. Truly a Superstar. We've never been super close pals but I would like to remedy that in the future.

Prince Ferris Fair I know you will downplay your contributions but I know how much effort you put in this year and it wouldn't of been as much of a success without you! Thank you for being the Prince to my Princess. I can't imagine reigning with anyone else. I love you, ten out of ten!

The second half of the reign continued the fast-paced frequency of events! My absolute favourite highlight was the charity drag baseball game which was not only a first for Edmonton, it was also a collaborative effort with Party Queens, and an incredibly successful fundraising idea that I KNOW will become an annual event!

The year went by in a blur, but there are so many people who deserve recognition: The Upper House, The Lower House, The Board, The College of Monarchs, and the general membership. Thank you everyone for your role in this successful year!

On a more personal note...

Both of the reigning monarchs have forbidden me from using the word, 'retirement' so I won't.

It's an 'extended absence.' For the past eight years I've been putting my energy into drag in one way or another, and now I would like to place more energy into other areas of my life and try something different for a while. So, this is goodbye for now. I want to thank everyone for all the love and support you've given me over the years. I appreciate it more than you know.

I Remain,

Her Most Imperial Sovereign Highness,

Imperial Crown Princess 46 of Edmonton and All Northern Alberta

The Pool Shark Princess, Friend of the Flowers and Guardian of the Garden Centre, Bambi Dextrous.

HER MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN MAJESTY, EMPRESS XLVI, GODIVA

Thank you for joining us this evening as we celebrate the completion of Reign 46 and all of our hard work, as well as the work of all the reigns who came before us, allowing us to build on the legacy of supporting our community.

It has taken me a long time to get to the point of being ready to be Empress. In many ways I was ready 12 years ago when I stepped down as Princess 34. Big Daddy, Ivanna, and Rob had certainly given me the tools to take what I had learned being a performer and host to the next level of organizing but I never felt ready. "Maybe Next Year" became the running joke except that it wasn't because every coronation I'd feel the fire and drive to step forward but it always passed. In some bizarro way I have COVID to thank. I wanted to dip my toes back in and support. Knowing that 45 was going to be a challenging year full of unknowns but also new ideas, I was excited to lend my experience but also learn and adapt to a new way of doing things. In the back of my mind I was testing the waters, others certainly saw it more clearly than I did. This time the desire didn't start strong in August and fade away; it built instead and by spring I knew it was time. A coffee chat at the office aka Remedy with Rob solidified my decision and of course to pick up where we had left off as ICPs. Both of us had changed, grown from who we were and the new not so Wild Party Children of Canada had something to prove.

It feels exhausting to go on about COVID but it still played a big part in what we did and how. After the in person success of Coronation 46 we hit the ground running, ready to adapt to every frustrating change that the virus, the city, province, country, world threw at us. I appreciate absolutely everyone who came out and the performers who entertained in that early part of the reign. People were ready for in person but we still took what we learned in 44 and 45 and incorporated it into how we ran things. The online fundraisers met with varying degrees of success but it was the auction platforms that really got a boost from hosting online during a live event. The struggles turned into strategy. I continue to be so proud and amazed at how our entire organization persevered and even thrived in the face of challenge.

SIX was a triumph. We took the gamble that we would be allowed to do an in person production show and it paid off. Taking a cast with a range of experience and a variety of talent, Pepper pushed us all to be our best and challenged me to learn, dance, grow in ways I haven't in so long. Felicia was a star, Winter an ingenue, Shay a force, and Kenya a pillar of strength, but honestly Bubbles you impressed me the most. Your dedication and hard work paid off with the best work I've seen you do. You were still funny and camp but you gave a full well rounded character. The Shadows Ferris, Tanner, Gabe and Shadow King Henry Rob gave such a neat twist to the show that it made it feel like ours and not just a recreation. Ruby Hymen for amazing outfits for this show and all year long. My only regret is that we didn't do another night or two, not for the money but to share our work and Pepper's vision with more people.

Our annual Pageants were also so successful. We tried hard to involve the stepping down Holidays, Hearts, Gays, and Amateur in order to find a mix of their vision, ours, and tradition. Gemma, Ferris, Jennie, Gabe Autumn, Selena, Gabe Itch, Indecisive, and Tia, you were an amazing asset to Team 46. Thank you. I hope we helped you learn a bit more about the court, how to plan our events and blend it with your own lived experience to take the ISCWR into the future. Billie, Dad Bod Rod, Tilda, Mars, Ladonna Stone, Roland and Jennie congrats on winning the new titles. Thank you for your hard work to date and I hope you keep engaged with the new reign and the court in general. I may be stepping down but you can still reach out if you have questions or want advice.

Brunches are such big business for drag these days and luckily we've been able to tap into the trend by partnering up with Campio. Rotating the hosts, performers, and dedicated charities showcased our drag to new audiences every month. I hope that this partnership that reign 45 set in motion and 46 benefitted from enormously continues into 47 and well into the future.

It has been so long since I travelled for coronations, too long. I'd lost touch with my out of town family and was just as excited to rekindle old friendships as I was to make new ones. So many new friends and old, I'll shout out a few and I'm sure I'll miss a some so sorry in advance.

Vancouver I'm so glad I kept my flight through all the uncertainty. Will it? Won't it? How? It meant a much smaller crew from Edmonton went than we'd hoped and we kinda missed out on an Upper House group adventure. DMS you still did a great job. Making an event happen when you don't know what restrictions will be laid or removed has challenged us all but we felt welcomed by our Mother Court and know we represented our realm well. Victor you are doing great and Fancy Pants when we chatted backstage you seemed nervous to be taking it all on but I can tell you are smashing it. Your uniqueness is bringing smiles and friendship across America and I am loving seeing your travels. Kitty I loved watching your show! I'm not sure if you are coming tonight but I hope to run into you again one day. Joan, a pleasure as always.

New York After hearing the stories and seeing the pictures of the Night of a Thousand Gowns in the past I was determined that being at New York coronation was something I must experience and what better time than while being the reigning Empress. A whirlwind week with such amazing moments, being obnoxious at a piano bar, seeing MF PATTI LUPONE in Company, watching the View, pizza, pizza, pizza, and of course Drag. I know we left smiles on the Americans' faces even if we broke protocol by belting out Oh Canada at the top of our lungs just to let the ballroom know we were there. It truly was a spectacle even if everyone told us it was half the event it usually is. I hope to go back one day and do it again when it's at full Glam. Darn expensive but I still recommend it for people who like a bit of Pomp in their Circumstance. Having Gerta Hel our Prinzess in Eastern Exile join Krystall and I, Rob, Big D and Ivanna was just an extra special touch.

Calgary I love that we got to do what we do best. Rob and I were invited to host, we managed a big bold court entrance and I won the privilege to perform. Natasha and Tim gosh what stamina to stick it through 2 full trying years, 1 has me fully drained. A big shout out to the Regents who kept the Calgary Flame alive until things returned to "Normal Enough". Fred and Barkley thanks always for the support and advice, our chats have helped. Dion, I know you believed in me from way back, you and Argentina are the first Calgary monarchs that I actively remember probably because of the joy and welcome you give to all... or the shooters. Chris Tron I hope you heal up well and as strong as your spirit. Misty thank you for accepting my command, a statuesque beauty and a true performer is always welcome on my stage. Dennis maybe you could wear just a little more jewelry lol nudge nudge keep sparkling. Makayla well we didn't do it together the first time round but I'm so happy we got a kick at it for your second. As I write this I don't know how our 50/50 is going to play out but it doesn't matter the battle is just for show and we're the Show Ponies. The Students are the real winners.

Winnipeg it was too long! How I have missed you. While I am a bit more mild than the wild bucket brigade princess sprinkling gin from the balcony, I love relaxing in your city and your hospitality continues to b unrivalled. Breyanna stay strong, I'm glad we could share space and memories. Satina thank you for your guidance, I should've reached out more. Electra thanks for the 10 dollar 5 minute bar tour, but really for spending your Sunday with us in the Forks. It was so nice I almost didn't mind the flight delays. Keep slaying Slaytana just wear knee pads.... for the stairs

Scoots, Adam, Juicy, Yada etc etc it was nice seeing you about. Sorry I didn't get to Regina as it is another city that has always treated me so well in the past... maybe next year.

While I did get to St Albert thanks to Outloud, I didn't get about the realm a much as I'd hoped. Ruby Harte, hopefully I'll be invited to Red Deer, no one will remember Octavia Lestrange from TOPs in '99. Toni Lester one of these times I'll get to Jasper, thanks for continually inviting me sorry it just didn't work out.

Edmonton My home. The Biggest of Onions. I have to start by saying thanks to Buddys for being my first home and training ground thanks Jim. Netta and Sassy took a young group of queens and injected some old school drag knowledge into us. Mia I miss our good times I want you to know that.

I got introduced to the court before day one of my Edmonton Drag. While at the beginning I wasn't so involved I always had respect for the work being done. Chatty, Dyna, Vera, Ida, Toots, Twiggy were living legends. Lloyd and Leah brought me fully into the court family when I was privileged to reign with LJ and Mara, and I've been involved ever since. Title holder, board member, host, performer, audience member eager to help out. New performers have opportunities I never dreamed of as a young queen but I hope the monarchs of this era and I still represent legacy and a way to give back to the community to those new performers. Ruby S and Ethyl I know your performing days are behind you but please know how much I cherish the times we had. Ethyl thank you for making GoDiva beautiful, giving me inspiration, guidance, and understanding. Ruby for making Dan handsome, your support and the Salon's has meant so much. I hope everyone recognizes how much you still do and give back to the community.

Thank you to the Board that runs and guides and infuriates us. Tosheena, thank you for taking up the presidential mantle once again. You really do so much behind the scenes to keep us going but it is ok to delegate... a bit... eventually someone will need to take your place. Kari you give so much and deserve a bit of spotlight even if you don't want to acknowledge it. Carrie and Tanner thank you for letting me join your team, you gave me the confidence to finally do it and the tools to work in this new era. Big Daddy and Ivanna you guided and shaped me as princess all those years ago, introducing me to travel, court family, and the greater ICS system, its legacy and traditions. Ladonna and Quinn thank you for giving welcome at our events, lending me your wisdom and for guiding me. Gabe and Indecisive you sure worked hard this year and I know there are the bigger titles in your future as you deserve. Party Queens big thank you for support and our Parky Queens Amateur Pageant. SMC the ballgame was truly a gift, you will be missed from the community. Pepper you truly are entertainer of the year. Not just for your shining moments on stage but also from behind. You have made all of the ISCWR better entertainers because you bring out the best in everyone, even when I'm being an utter bitch in rehearsal. Myra and Bull thanks for keeping me part of the Steele family and Mike for all the organizing tonight. Vanity and Colin it has been a pleasure working with you this year, I wish you nothing but success.

Duke Orpheus I absolutely think you are amazing and hope that you continue to grow, you are an asset to the community and I hope to see so much more. Duchess Tequila you provided me with so much needed support. At any given moment I could rely on your help with a poster, with music, and a listening ear. So much of the art we used this year came from your creative brain and it was uncredited. I don't know if in time you'll be eager to try again but I do know it would be a benefit to the organization if you did and I owe you any and all the support back.

Princess Bambi your are so good hearted and a bit delicate at times where I can be sharp and self focused. Sorry. I certainly saw self assurance and steel behind the doe eyes and I hope you can tap into that when you need it in the next phase. Prince Ferris you did it!! Your smile and laugh are infectious and you shone with absolute LUSTER. I hope you two are proud of your work with the ISCWR. DOH has been such a gift to the community as well, one that no money can repay.

Krystall you have been the perfect travelling companion, even putting up with my snoring. Sure being the Out of Town 1/2 was originally brought up as a joke but you represented Edmonton out of town better than I could have imagined and I don't regret making it official for a second. The absolute star power you wield and presence you command still wows me these many years later. I am grateful for your friendship and support forever.

Rob Gosh what a ride. I cannot believe what we accomplished. If I ever start to question myself I just need to look at the list of shows and events to remind me how much we did do. When I say I couldn't have done it without you I mean it. I could never have achieved this level of success without being pushed to succeed, without your organization, without your community contacts. I'm glad I got to do this with a good friend because I'm glad you found how to do it with me. You originally talked about doing it for me but I'm glad you found how to do it with me. This year it was OURS. Children but some things will stay true forever. Our love of the art of drag, entertainment, and of course show time.

Peter I love you. The sacrifices you made for us, and fume about my frustrations or taking off together with friends, missed get togethers with friends, missed accepted and supported that stuck to your feet piss you packed and organized in the simply are the best.

HIS MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN MAJESTY, EMPEROR XLVI, ROB

Picture it. Edmonton, 2021. It is Jason Kenney's Best Summer Ever and after countless maybe-next-year's, GoDiva finally decides that this is the moment. She is running for Empress.

A decade and a bit earlier, we had reigned together, Prince and Princess, the Moonstones Wild and Wicked, but our history went back further than that. We had worked together, she up, me down, for Jim Brown Inc. There, we'd bonded; in many ways we were – and are – very different people, but in many other ways, we share much in common. Even before then, there'd been mutual respect and appreciation; when the ISCWR was on one of its many time-outs with Jim Brown Inc in Reign 25/26, GoDiva reopened that door by inviting me to judge her stepdown as Mz Buddys 1. We took different roads, but roads that ran next to each other, and we ended up there, maskless on a Remedy patio, with COVID winding down and the future looking bright and glorious.

I ran with her because, how could I not? Brother from another mother and sister from another mister, she was both, and I owed it to her. You see, that other time, a decade and a bit earlier, I was not the Prince she deserved. It could have been Lonny, but I had home bar advantage. I was crowned next to her, there on the stage of that little bar on 106 St.

So few people now know the me I was then, there in my functioning alcohol and drug abuse, but I look back at the few parts of the reign I remember and its with the bright regret that I didn't work as hard as I could have. So, this, this was the great do-over.

Every villain deserves redemption, after all.

Perhaps the biggest mistakes of the reign were those I made right at the beginning. The erroneous assumptions on which I based everything else. That a fourth kick at the Imperial Crown would be a cakewalk. That I had grown and evolved and matured and stabilized. That after COVID everyone would be excited and appreciative and ready for fun and work. That it was after COVID. I have been wrong many times in my life, but those assumptions will be amongst the wrongest. And yes Kari, I am using wrongest as a word.

A story helps us live forever.

Find us on Facebook

In every reign, I have let people down, myself included. In every reign, I have caused hurt to some of those closest and more important to me. This reign was no different. We always tell a first-timer that you'll never know what it's like until you're in it, and the truth is, that is equally applicable to a fourth-timer. In almost all cases though, the fault lay in poor communication, in the failure to fulfill expectations clearly not laid out. The irony of a writer lacking the communication skills necessary for the job is not lost on me, but this is going to be neither an apology for the outbursts, mistakes, or moments where I was not the Emperor or man I should be, nor an absolution for those who also failed, who disappointed, who didn't, or couldn't, give what was needed.

Because you see, in the end, none of that matters. We struggled but we persevered. We fell but we got back up. We failed, yes, at times, but more, we succeeded. And not just succeeded. Overcame. Triumphed. And delivered.

We are giving away over $60,000 to a dozen charities and nearly two dozen post-secondary students. We did that, all of us, together.

When I look back on Reign 46, will I want to remember those brief moments of darkness or rage, or will I instead want to remember the multiple moments of accomplishment and glory, of exciting new partnerships, of reaching out to welcome in new members, new venues, new events? It's about the lessons learned, not the bridges burned. It's about the work and the journey, not the struggle and the delay. One must imagine Sisyphus happy, and tonight, he is.

One of the primary themes of the reign for me was reconnection. Many years ago, when I was new to the Court, equally new were people like Ladonna and Derek and Krystall Ball. Together, we formed part of reign 26, and this year, these people, so important to my life back then, re-emerged in a big way. They brightened the reign in such a real and invaluable way. Another reconnection brightened not only the reign but the city. No drag performer in Edmonton hasn't been blessed by the return of Pepper, our Entertainer of the Year, whose talent is only matched by her genuine goodness of spirit.

This year, I was honored to represent Edmonton out of town, in New York, Calgary, Winnipeg. There is something so magical about the Court circuit. These are people whose journeys have mirrored and parallel my own in so many ways, and the connection of shared labour and similar struggle is a deep and enduring one. Going back to that theme of reconnection, this year was my chance to reconnect with people who have been part of my life for decades. My life is enriched by every encounter with these fellow monarchs and friends, and I can only hope I have brought joy to them as they have brought joy to me.

One of the criticisms long lobbed at me over the last decade has been regarding the relationship between EVO and the Court, with me as an owner and me as a monarch. Why people should be surprised that a queer organization would hold many, even most, events in queer space is beyond me, but regardless, I think I have more than proven that the relationship between venue and court is symbiotic as it should be. The impact of the unforeseen Delta and Omicron waves on EVO definitely factored into those moments this year that I'd rather forget, but I know beyond a doubt that what EVO has been given by the Court has been returned. As long as EVO exists, it will be there for the Court... should the Court choose to use it.

A line I have always walked my entire life has been that between tyrant and leader, and this reign that line became a highwire, and sometimes, yes, I tripped and fell. It was one of the goals of the reign, to not only mentor, but to allow other title holders to run with the baton we handed them.

Sometimes, this resulted in relinquishing control too much, and maybe that was a mistake. But maybe not. Maybe that was exactly what the reign needed, giving new people the opportunity to fly on their own – and sometimes, fall down.

Campio Brunches were a key source not only of funds for our charities but also a place to let those solo flights happen. We welcomed in so many non-court performers, giving hosting opportunities we could have simply done ourselves, even letting other people choose beneficiaries. This is something I feel the court should continue to do; how better to motivate and include than to hand over the reins of the reign entirely? That this some time caused me to feel uninvolved in my own events goes back to those unclear communications. But still in looking back upon them, this was one of the reign's crowning achievements.

If there were many times I felt like Sisyphus pushing a rock up the hill, there were also many rocks without whom I'd've not been able to keep going. Rocks who together formed a solid foundation on which I stood. People who, indeed, rock. Brian, you didn't just hold down the fort, you kept it going while my year went everywhere but EVO. You are not just a friend and fellow monarch and manager, you are a sounding board, a safety net, a vent, and a brother. Now please, let's stop spiralling down together and start soaring up. Tanner, I won't say that you're actually my best friend, but this reign, you have indeed become one of them; you were the splash of cold water thrown into my face when needed, and often, a brake on the roller coaster. Tosheena, you're a powerhouse, and you powered through even though you were faced with such fear and worry in your own life; this organization has been blessed with strong monarchs that have become Queen

Mothers to new generations: Leah, Vera, Marni, Ivanna - and Kenya, you're one of them, the best of the best. And Kari, I simply cannot imagine my life without you in it, nor remember a time when you weren't my biggest cheerleader, best friend, and truest soul; at the times I have been darkest, it has been the thought of what me giving up would do to you that has given me the strength to pause until the darkness passes.

The darkness always passes. My mental health struggles were woven into the fabric of this year, and of course informed the selection of BriteLine as one of this year's main beneficiaries. Behind the scenes, navigating those waters was a challenge, especially when you factor in the anxiety and depression of others whose own journeys also hit some stormy moments. It was exhausting, I can't and won't lie about that, but we didn't just survive; we thrived. And we are onwards and upwards to better and brighter things, and I know that as long as EVO exists, mental health causes will remain a core component of our internal fundraising, and one I hope future reigns also save room for.

This message cannot be a yearbook quote of names and inside jokes. I learned long ago that someone is always forgotten when you try to list everyone out. But there are people who deserve to be singled out.

To the cast of Six, I want to say thank you. Production shows have long been my most significant source of Court Joy, and this was no different. Thank you for allowing me to shadow-marry all six of you

Sister Mary, your ability to think outside the box and the way you take the Court along with you is an ability very appreciated. Drag queens playing baseball at Re/Max field will be a memory many carry with them forever, and it was only my own wounded pride that stopped me from being part of it.

Gemma, as Mx Mary, as Mx EVO, as the PQ CEO, you have not only supported the Court, you have helped expand its reach and helped guide it towards elevated inclusivity and diversity. You have done for the Court what you do for EVO and Edmonton drag in general – challenge the status quo and force us to rethink what we do, how we do it, and who we do it with. You make us be better.

Tequila Mockingbird, Duchess twice over. You have so many strengths, (except congeniality, and that is not something (to) aspire to anyway. Just kidding, you're congenial. Most of the time.) You began the reign with disappointment, but you never disappointed. You worked endlessly to ensure GoDivas and I had everything we needed, and I know you're sitting here tonight, reading this and feeling feelings that yet another Coronation is ending without Tequila Mockingbird being inducted into the College of Monarchs, but let me tell you something, if induction was merit-based, or spirit-based, you'd be in, many times over. You are part of the history and legacy of this organization and the people in this room tonight know that, value you for that, love you for that, myself included.

Orpheus, what is this? A stepdown message for ants? I hope this experience has given you a window to the possibility and potential of the organization, and a window to the possibility and potential inside you. We learn not only from our own successes and failures but from those around us, and whether it was showing you what to do or what not to do, I don't doubt I was able to impart at least some of my years and years and years of experience.

DoH! A deer! A female deer! To Ferris and Bambi, our EVOs and ICPs and chroniclers of Edmonton drag. I worry sometimes that neither of you can bring yourself to believe in the depth of the gratitude and appreciation that the Edmonton drag community, the Evolution family, and now the ISCSR family has for both of you. We can't ever know where our roads will take us, but whatever happens next and wherever your journey leads, your impact cannot be denied. Ferris, I know this year became a juggling act at times, with the bar and the court and just life all needing to be balanced, but you've done it. You have made it through to the other side, and we both know what that means.

And lastly, to Gigolette, Octavia L'estrange, Goddy, BoDanny, Mz Buddys 1 and so forth, my Imperial Wife and my dear, dear friend. You waited for this year so long, your years as a Buddys Beauty, our reign as Prince and Princess, then a decade, and then double Duchess, and then finally, maybe next year became this year, and this is the moment. I hope it was everything you dreamed it would be (it never is, it's less, it's more), but all those nights you spent imbibing the gin of the gods on the circuit, keeping the Wild Party Children spirit alive, you knew it was building to this. That certainty never wavered. You knew you would one day be Empress, and what an Empress you were! You defied gravity. You were the life of the party. You are the best of Edmonton, the best of what the Game of Court can and should be. You didn't just bite into the apple, you devoured it with the quirky passion with which you attempt everything, and all those attempts? They become successes under your leadership. You were Superstar for three years, but you're a star forever. I am humbled and honored to be your Emperor, this night, and every night.

"Would you ever do it again" people ask, as I complete a fourth time. And the answer is an emphatic no. Not because I didn't enjoy, but because there is nothing left to prove. I have given all that is in me to give, and whether it was enough or not, in the end, that's all we can give. I have grown, not just from my first time to my fourth, but from crowning to stepdown. Not every lesson has been easy or happy, but they have all been understood. I know who I am more now than when I stepped up. My time with the ISCWR will always be a significant part of my legacy, as the ISCWR has been a significant part of my life. That cannot ever change, no matter what other changes the future has in store. Whatever happens, I remain,

Thankful & BEYOND thrilled that SO many 2SLGBTQIA+ people within OUR community will be helped through the monies raised from this years efforts

Thankful & appreciative that we were allowed to wear all our hats at once in one magical evening to truly help out a cherished charity for our foreign furry friends that means so much to us & the club

Thankful & humbled by the amount of positive feedback & kind/uplifting words/messages I received throughout the year from SO many people who mean SO much to me

Thankful & relieved to be finishing the year knowing that the organization will continue to be in such safe & trusted hands

HIS MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN GRACE, GRAND DUKE XLVI, ORPHEUS

I'd like to first of all thank my fellow Upper House folks for a fantastic year. We certainly had our ups and downs (and perhaps a quarrel or two) but at the end of the day we accomplished some truly incredible things, and we have quite the year to be proud of. As a first-time holder of an upper house title, this year involved a lot of learning and gaining experience. I don't think I could have asked for a better group of people to look up to for guidance as I find myself at the beginning of what I hope will be a many-year journey with the ISCWR and ICS system at large.

To my Duchess, Tequila, thank you for supporting me in my first foray into a more involved role; your experience and guidance proved invaluable throughout the year.

To Ferris and Bambi, thank you for being so supportive and kind, and always being an ear to listen.

Finally, to Rob and GoDiva, thank you for trusting me to be a member of your team and for constantly pushing me to be better; it was an honour to be on your team. Getting to attend Calgary coronation (as well as our own coronation) was a highlight of this past year; seeing decades-long friendships rekindled year after year is heartwarming and inspires me to remain involved for many, many more years. This is just the beginning!

ENTERTAINER OF THE YEAR 2021

What an incredible year it has been.

Thank you so much to reign 46 for recognizing me with the honour of Entertainer of the Year. It has been a great experience being involved in the shows, fundraisers, and productions. I can't express what it means to me to be working with artists in this community that I grew up with. I have always seen the Edmonton drag community as the most passionate group of performers to work with. To the new friends I have made, I am beyond impressed with the level you are taking this art form and the welcomed embrace you have shown me. You have so enriched my life. I've been able to accomplish so much with the help of old and new friends, and I can't thank you enough.

To Godiva and Rob, reconnecting with you has truly meant the world to me. I treasure our friendships and working with you this year has been amazing. Your unwavering support has pushed me to expand my boundaries and elevate my drag. I can't thank you enough. Fantastic work to everyone involved with reign 46, and thank you for recognizing me. To reign 47 y'all are going to kill it and if you need any spice through out your year you know where to find me. Keep it cute, spicy and fabulous y'all.

THE 33RD Mz GAY EDMONTON — INDECISIVE

It's been a privilege to be a part of reign 46 as Mz gay 33. I'm so proud of this reign and what we have accomplished, though I may have been crowned online but I saw the true strength of the community and what we can accomplish. I've pushed myself and my drag through this year I can't wait to see what the future holds and what new challenges await. I may be Mz gay 33 indecisive, but I'm decisive about wigs and a killer style, so if you need a new do, please message me, or chat me up!

Yours truly, indecisive

THE 33RD Mx GAY EDMONTON — GABE ITCH

This past year has truly been one to remember! Firstly I wanna congratulate Reign 46 on an amazing year, even with uncertainties about Covid and random shutdowns and curfews the success of this year is something to celebrate. I personally learned so much this year. Not just from the upper house but the board as well and I can't wait to keep growing with this chosen family. This little organization has become the biggest part of my life!
